

KENTUCKY BAR ASSOCIATION
RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF KENTUCKY

PRACTICE OF LAW

SCR 3.668 Non-compliance, definition

(1) Delinquency of Certification. Any certification of Continuing Legal Education activity for an educational year (July 1-June 30) which is submitted after the August 10th immediately following the close of that educational year, shall be deemed past due and in non-compliance. All past due reports shall be accompanied by a late filing fee of fifty dollars ($50) per certificate or report to cover the administrative costs of recording credits to the prior year. All past due reports for completion of an activity in the immediately preceding educational year must be received by the Commission with the late fee of $50.00 per certificate or report no later than the close of the current educational year (June 30). This deadline (June 30) will not apply in instances where the member or former member is in the process of removing an exemption per SCR 3.666(6) or attempting certification per SCR 3.675, but the late fee of $50 per certificate or report shall be applied if the report is received after the August 10th reporting deadline described above.

(2) Delinquency of Credits. Failure to meet the minimum continuing legal education requirements of Rule 3.661 and associated certification requirements shall be grounds for suspension by the Court from the practice of law.
