

Congratulations to our newest members of the KBA!

New attorneys received their oaths of office, Friday, October 21, in the courtroom for the Supreme Court of Kentucky in the state Capitol in Frankfort. The KBA hosted a reception in honor of our newest members, their families and friends at the Ky. Bar Center. A total of 394 new attorneys were recommended for admittance to the practice of law following the July, 2011, bar examination.

Justice Wil Schroder of the 6th Supreme Court District addresses the new members from his district during the official ceremony.

Chief Justice John D. Minton, Jr., of the 2nd Supreme Court District greets new attorneys as they prepare to enter the courtroom prior to taking their oaths of office.

KBA Executive Assistant Elaine Baesler greets new member Justin Gooch as he and his wife, Amanda, enter the bar center. The Gooch family resides in Louisville.

Monique Winther, at left, of Lexington, and Amelia Leonard of Louisville celebrate at the Ky. Bar Center following Leonard's swearing-in ceremony. Winther, of Lexington, became a member of the KBA in 1985.

Justice Mary Noble from the 5th Supreme Court District welcomes a new attorney.
