

KBA Members:

On October 30 and 31, 2010, ECU will once again host the Sanders Invitational Mock Trial Tournament, a well-regarded annual event that draws competitors from across the nation. It is sponsored by Northern Kentucky attorney and ECU Distinguished Alumnus Bob Sanders. Please note that the tournament will be held at the Robert F. Stephens Courthouse in downtown Lexington.

In order to make this event a success, ECU needs the assistance of judges, attorneys and law students from across the state. Approximately 26 teams from across the nation will participate, requiring us to fill over 150 judging slots. The ECU Mock Trial Program urgently requests your help in educating these future attorneys.

Each round lasts approximately three hours and is preceded by a 30-minute judge orientation session. Attorneys are eligible for two hours of Kentucky Public Speaking CLE credit for volunteering their time. CLE forms will be available on site at the tournament. You need not have mock trial or litigation experience to serve as a judge. All judges will receive a confirmation email with further information upon receipt of the sign-up information.

There will be two rounds each day. You may sign up for as many rounds as your schedule permits and may judge multiple rounds. For a schedule, see the tournament website at www.people.eku.edu/zeiglers/tournament.htm

If you would like to serve, please email Sharon Lee at sharon.lee@eku.edu, for an information packet, or if you would prefer to speak with someone, please call 859-622-5931 and Nancy Davis will take your information.

Please note that this information was sent courtesy of the Kentucky Bar Association.

Sara L. Zeigler, Ph.D
Interim Dean, University Programs
Eastern Kentucky University
www.people.eku.edu/zeiglers/tournament.htm