Question: May a law firm which moved office locations notify the public at large of the change by publishing an advertisement in the local newspapers?

Answer: Yes.

OPINION

Bates v. State Bar of Arizona, 97 S.Ct. 269 (1977) permits limited, discrete and non-misleading advertising of routine services. Such restricted commercial speech serves individual and societal interests in assuring informed and reliable decision making.